Frequently Asked Questions

I want to sign up for Studio Pro, but I still have classes left on a package I purchased. What can I do?

No problem! Just let us know you would like to become a Studio Pro member, and we will reimburse you for the value of your remaining classes. We will be happy to help you with this via email at studio509fitness@gmail.com or at the front desk.

Why are you making this change now?

We've been listening to the feedback from the Studio 509 family, and resoundingly, they were looking for an easier way to manage their classes and also take advantage of everything Studio 509 has to offer...without the worry of missing something good! So we are introducing Studio Pro as an automatic payment with the added benefit of saving members some money!

What else has changed?

You may have noticed that we eliminated the 20 class package. After reviewing all of the information, it looked like there was a win-win opportunity to make membership easier and more convenient while also saving some money. The new Studio Pro Membership is a more cost effective solution for most of our Studio members.

How do I sign-up?

If you would like to get started right away, let us know via phone or at the front desk, and we can get you all set up...including credit from your current package! Also, we would be happy to apply our LIMITED TIME offer of $20 discount for new Studio Pro Memberships!

What if I want to cancel my Membership?

There is a 3-month minimum for all new Studio Pro Memberships, after that, you can cancel any time before your next automatic payment. No hard feelings! We love you anyhow.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

Class No-Show Policy- *Because of limited space, there will be a $20 charge for any reserved class that was not cancelled 3-hours before the start-time.
